N. B. The Sum of 150000 l. was yearly granted to the King of Spain, by the Parliament, since 1707. inclusive, for his own Maintenance and that of his Troops, besides what was given above, according to this Account.

N. B. Besides the Subsidys to the King of Prussia above-mention'd, his Prussian Majesty requested of the Queen, as her Quota, Two Thirds of 70000 Crowns to recruit his Troops in Italy, that the same might be in a Condition to act there in 1710. and 1711. And this Sum was granted by an Act of Parliament.

N. B. Besides the ordinary Subsidy for the Duke of Savoy of 640000 Crowns per Annum, there was granted him for the Year 1706. 50000 l. And for the Year 1709, 1710, and 1711. 100000 l. per Annum, for the Charges of the War in Italy.

N. B. By the Treaty with the King of Prussia of the 20th of November 1704. that a Body of 8000 Men of his Troops should act in Italy, it was stipulated, That he should have 300000 Crowns per Annum; one Half to be paid by England, and the other by the Dutch. But notwithstanding this Treaty is only sign'd by England, 'tis not doubted but the Dutch will agree to it. In the mean time, we see, as above, that England has paid her Two Thirds.

N. B. The Two Thirds of the Subsidy of a Million of Rixdollars for the King of Portugal have always been paid by England; tho' it appears by the Vth Article of the Offensive Alliance, that this Sum ought to have been paid by the Emperor, England and Holland.

N. B. In the Beginning of this War the Subsidys were equally divided betwixt England and Holland.

But it appears by the Sums above specify'd, that the

Share of England amounts to 15790361
And that of Holland to 9480296

Both together 25270657

The Half of this Sum for England 12635328
So that England paid more than her Share 31550328

as above

This Estimate is as Exact as I could possibly make it, and taken out of the Books which were found in the Offices of the Secretaries of State and War, and likewise out of the Accounts given by those who were employed in this Service.

Signed,

H. St. John.
